Not illustrated. 1922 Excerpt: .have it that the initiate must pass through a certain probation period. We have no quarrel with that. It is a matter for each chapter to decide. But we do object to having a small body of men force their ideas of the ludicrous upon the entire student body. These demonstrations are more representative of high schools or backwoods colleges, where hazing and the placing of cows in college buildings are still in vogue, than of a modern university. Such exhibitions have no place in the life at Ohio State. Initiate to your heart s content and have all sorts of acts staged, but do not impose them on the rest of the world. Keep them within the four walls of the chapter house. FEATEBNITY PIN SAVES STUDENT A. L. Hillyer still is wondering whether it was the fraternity pin, or what. Anyway, Hillyer, who is a student at the University of Missouri, was visiting in Kansas City. He stopped near the post office to light a cigarette. He felt a nudge in his side and turned around. A well dressed young man stood with the blue nose of a pistol leveled at him. Fork over, the man commanded. Hillyer forked a watch and chain, a billfold containing $60, a package of cigarettes and then a fraternity pin. The bandit glanced at the fraternity pin, pressed open the cigarette case, extracted a cigarette and handed back the things taken from Hillyer. Just wanted a cigarette, he...
