Let us follow the writer however and see what ritual he finds. He tells us that the Preface of the American Prayer Book declares that it has no intention of departing from the principles of worship of the Church of England. If the reader will turn to the Preface, he will find that it says nothing of the sort but that it does not intend to depart from the Church of England in any essential point of doctrine, discipline or worship; a very different statement, and one which would have taken no longer to print than the garbled quotation given. We next are told that in the English Prayer Book is found a certain rubric which there is pripted and which is supposed to be the famous ornaments rubric. But as quoted no such rubric is or ever was in the English Prayer Book! The...
