Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Excerpt from Kansas City Public Library Former Field Secretary in New Position. - Rowland Haynes, one of the first field secretaries of the Playground and Recreation Association of America, who assisted in the development of recreation programs in Milwaukee, Detroit and a number of the leading cities in the United States, who during the war was in charge of War Camp Community Service recreation work for soldiers in New York City and later served as director of the Cleveland, succeeding Sherman Kingsley in this position. All creation workers will rejoice that within the recreation field, Rowland Haynes made his start in social and civic work and all his friends will rejoice over the very large opportunity for service which comes to him in his new position. San Francisco s Music Week. - The National Bureau for the Advancement of Music, 105 W. 40th St., New York City, publishes as illuminating and suggestive report of San Francisco s First Music Week. Working closely with the San Francisco Community Service Music Organizer for California, the National Bureau was able to develop one of the most satisfactory music weeks in the entire country. The entire community responded to the idea and vital help cam from many sources - the Chamber of Commerce, the City Administration, the Music Trades Association, the Musicians Union among others. Daily organ recitals, a children s community sing, the community chorus concert, the San Francisco Symphony Orchestra concert and bands and bands and bands. Churches, clubs, educational institutions observed the week. Foreign born groups, industrial groups held sings. One of the biggest events was the music memory contest for children above the fourth grade in public...
