Forgotten Books, United States, 2015. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 229 x 152 mm. Language: English Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Excerpt from Macmillan s Latin Course, Third Part: Easy Exercises in Continuous Prose Before using this book the student should at least have had some practice in putting into Latin easy sentences illustrating the use of the accusative and infinitive, gerund and gerundive, ut and ne, cum, si, etc. Some of these subjects are treated afresh, but the sentences will be found too hard for the beginner, at any rate for the young beginner. An acquaintance with the earlier volumes of this Course is not necessary. My object has been to produce a set of easy exercises in continuous prose, to give practice in those words, constructions and idioms, which occur on every page of Cicero and Caesar, and so to enable the student to read these authors with some ease. When I had finished my continuous pieces, I found that there were certain difficulties which recurred in most of them. About the Publisher Forgotten Books publishes hundreds of thousands of rare and classic books. Find more at This book is a reproduction of an important historical work.
