Brand New Book ***** Print on Demand *****.Excerpt from The Gardiner Manor: Address Delivered at the Third Annual Meeting of the New York Branch of the Order of Colonial Lords of Manors in America, Held in the City of New York, April 24, 1915 Ladies and Gentlemen: When our President, Mr. Livingston, wrote that he would like to have me tell you something about the Manor of Gardiners Island, I felt that I had a difficult task; but when he said the time limit would be fifteen minutes, I felt that to put the two hundred and seventy-nine years of its history into that short time would be impossible. However, I will do my best. I have referred for dates, etc., to articles written by Mrs. Martha J.Lamb, Mr. George Parsons Lathrop, and others. The first English settlement in the present limits of the State of New York was made by Lion Gardiner, by the purchase from the Indians, of an island now known as Gardiner s Island. It was nine miles long by one to one and a half wide, and contained 3500...
