Koehler Books, United States, 2013. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 226 x 152 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .When handsome American traveler Gary Stevens arrives in the international vacation paradise of Dubai, he stumbles into a class warfare that pits monarchs of the fast-developing nation against an army of immigrant laborers. After a poor Indian worker falls to his death at one of the hundreds of new construction sites in the United Arab Emirates city, an Egyptian revolutionary decides to strike back in defense of the powerless. He recruits a following of passionate and loyal men to carry out his plans of vengeance against the hasty, exploitative business practices of a young Emirati developer. The men seize an international hotel, endangering hundreds of foreign families and tourists who are held hostage. Unsuspecting Gary Stevens, who befriends a beautiful Jordanian woman, is forced to become a hero. The empathetic and military-trained native of Louisville, Kentucky--who lost his own mother and best friend to criminal acts--feels compelled to fight for international justice in an action-packed rescue mission.
