

My Life on Dialysis, Another Way to Live! (Paperback)

By Verine Talton

Createspace Independent Publishing Platform, United States, 2015. Paperback. Book Condition: New. Large Print. 203 x 127 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .We may all face a life or death decisions at one time or another. But the choice we make could affect not only our own life, but those we love. My choice was to live another way, with dialysis. Sample: I saw my family doctor the following day, only to be told by him, Eln, I received your test results from the hospital and they show your kidneys have completely failed. The only chance you have of living is to go on dialysis or the poison will overtake all your organs and they will fell, which will mean you will die. I don t want that to happen. But you are not as bad off as some folks who are in End Stage- Renal-Failure. You can be helped and get back healthy enough to get a transplant. I need you to make the decision right now, because you may not live long at this stage !.
