Bond (Chairman of the Committee) presiding. Present: Senators Bond, Kempthorne, Bennett, Snowe, Bumpers, and Wellstone. Chairman Bond. Good morning and welcome to this hearing of the Small Business Committee. Please accept my sincere apologies for the delay in starting. I was doing an extensive interview on Small Business Week, and I figure that is at least a plausible argument for being late. I have talked with our ranking member. Senator Bumpers, who has, I think, two markups scheduled this morning. Normally, I do not like to go ahead without him because he is a very faithful attendee, but with his heavy workload today I thought that we would go ahead. Before making my opening comments about the nomination of Ginger Lew to be deputy administrator of the Small Business Administration, I note that Congresswoman Pelosi is with us and I know that your schedule is busy. You may have some comments that you would wish to offer us before we get into the business of the hearing. Statement Of The Honorable Nancy Pelosi, A Representative In Congress From California Ms. Pelosi. Thank you very much, Senator. I appreciate the opportunity to be here this morning. It is really a personal pleasure, but also a professional one, to be...
