The fourth plate presents us with the Achilles Auricula--a most beautiful florist s flower, accompanied with full directions for the culture of this much-admired tribe of plants. NOTICES OF FLOWER-SHOWS, c. On Saturday, the 14th, the Horticultural Society Of London had its first exhibition of flowers and fruit for this year. The day was deliciously fine; and, although vegetation is somewhat backward, the gardens looked as fresh and gay as possible in their young verdure. The company was quite crowded, as might naturally be expected, by those wishing a little fresh air. There were three bands in attendance on this occasion. The display of flowers was one of the least attractive that we have seen here--a circumstance owing, no doubt, to the protracted severities of the season, which repressed vegetation in the open air, and in hot-house3 compelled the use of higher artificial temperature...
